Main Trading Company is happy to accommodate purchases through our layaway program. Due to rapidly changing manufacturer coupons and promotions this program will not be available on all merchandise, all of the time. To start the layaway a $20 administrative fee plus a 30% down payment is required. The administration fee and the 30 percent down payment is non refundable for any reason.

The minimum second payment of Thirty percent of total sale is due in our store in thirty days of original sale date
The Final Payment is due in our store in sixty days of original sale date

The length of this contract is sixty days. The expiration date and the first payment date of this contract will be clearly stated below. If payment date or expiration date fall on a date that we are closed, this contract will be automatically extended through the close of the next business day. There are no other grace periods or extensions. You can pre-pay or pay off early with no penalty. If the contract is not fulfilled by the expiration date all monies paid beyond the initial thirty percent down payment and twenty dollar administration fee will be returned to the customer.

Payments are due on due dates. Payments are due in our store at the address above on or before the due dates.
Administrative fee and initial down payment are not refundable for any reason.

Any warranty that is available will start on the day you acquire the merchandise. No merchandise will be released to the customer until all money has been paid and funds have cleared

If you have questions regarding the terms of this contract, ask us before signing it. There is no cooling off period or time to think about it after you have agreed and signed this contract.
